The injection of this query and William Allen White s answer to it into the political campaign of 1896 was the dash of humor that set the whole nation laughing and made White one of our literary celebrities. Whatever Kansas has been or has done in the past, she has never been humdrum nor uninteresting. The struggle of her quarreling parents of the North and South for her possession, in her infancy, focused all eyes on the territory that has since become the central state of the Union, It was then that America s greatest pulpit orator exhorted his congregation to send Sharpe s rifles rather than bibles to the nascent commonwealth. Those were the days of John Brown and Quantrell, of the LeCompton constitution and guerilla raids, of midnight murder and daylight conflagration. A few years later Kansas came into the limelight as a mendicant. Grasshoppers had devoured every tender twig, the drouth had parched her prairies and the blood-thirsty red men and fiery siroccos had completed the work of her impoverishment, until in every hamlet in the east the hat was passed for her and donations of money, bread and castoff clothing solicited. Another decade rolled by and it was the mortgage and money lender that were sapping her resources and retarding her growth. The eastern capitalist was forced to forego his interest on the unfruitful acres, and the holders of maturing obligations had no option except to take the titles of undesired holdings at...
