

Basics about the Typical Adult Female Human (Paperback)

By William M Lybarger Ed d Ct

Outskirts Press, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Guys, ever wonder how women think. Why they act the way they do? Why they say the things they say? Why they may sometimes seem to be, or are, unpredictable? Well, this booklet explains at least some of their thinking and behavior and its impact on our relationships with them. The booklet includes three major parts that form its framework and are based upon my clinical education and service, and life experiences: 1). Background (things to keep in mind - especially for men - when using this booklet) 2). Observations (a blend of specific areas and issues of behaviors and gender differences that can be of importance in building and maintaining relationships) 3) Suggestions (things that might be important to your woman when sharing a home and family life). Once you have read through and become familiar with its content, you should give it to your woman and ask that she carefully read and evaluate the importance of each item in the Observation and Suggestion sections. For each item she will have the opportunity to rate its level of importance for her, using a four point scale,...
