By John A Cooper

Forgotten Books, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Fourth Canadian Infantry Brigade: History of Operations, April, 1915, to Demobilization While it is not yet possible nor desirable to attempt a complete history of any unit in the Canadian Corps, there are many facts to be recorded which are of immediate personal interest to those who have taken their share in the work. It is in such spirit that this brief outline has been prepared. The 4th Brigade has had a wide experience and an unbroken record of success. It has had the post of honour on many occasions when the 2nd Canadian Division went into action, and it has never failed to live up to the Corps record of reaching its objective successfully and on time. At the Somme in 1916 and at Vimy Ridge, Hill 70 and Passchendaele in 1917, it did its part in maintaining the reputation which Canadians had won in the Second Battle of Ypres. At Amiens, Arras and Cambrai in 1918 the Brigade upheld its unsullied record. The closing days of the war found it again leading the Division, and when the Cease Fire...

Great electronic book and useful one. It can be written in straightforward terms rather than difficult to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
