THE WALLACE FAMILY: AN ALBUM OF THE ROARING TWENTIES (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This coffee table book is a compilation of original photographs from a once discarded family album which was the proud possession of an American family living in the vicinity of the Texas - Oklahoma panhandle from 1921 to 1930 and a little beyond. It was purchased by the author in the 1960s at which time it was known to be an invaluable record of an American family's experiences during those years known as the Roaring Twenties. The father was a fully involved Kiwanis member - an event of which appears in the album. At home, they swam in the local lakes and reservoirs and spread out their picnic blankets on the lake shores, filmed their cars amidst the cotton fields. The father was the Great Hunter and Fisherman. He traveled near and far to seek his...
