High School Preparation for
College Math
A Case Study of One High School

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: LAP Lambert Academic Publishing | A Case Study of One High School | Are high school students ready for college mathematics? This qualitative case study examined how fifteen former high school students from a small, rural high school in central Vermont perceived their preparedness for college level mathematics and identified recommendations for improvement. Student interviews and math assessment data for each participant were analyzed to respond to the research question. The interview protocol consisted of one-on-one semi-structured...
