ANYBODY LONELY? (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Outskirts Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This book is dedicated to anyone that has ever been lonely. Although life takes us places we would prefer not to go, hang in there because it's possible we can truly rise above our circumstances, realize we are blessed, and live the best life we can despite the cards dealt to us. I first thank God for carrying me through the storm. I would not be where I am if I had not gone through it. Some people succeed having strong family ties and support. Or, seemingly, they just have all the luck. Sometimes tragedy is the driver behind some people's success. In my case, I neither had strong family ties nor family support, not even luck. Instead, I had tragedy but I didn't let that tragedy defeat me. I defeated tragedy with a determination, faith, and a belief in God that is so surmountable that I refused to be no less than victorious. To be defeated means to give up on my kids; to give up on life. Next to my belief in God, caring for my kids is the driver behind my behavior to keep on pressing on. I have two children; raised them in a single-parent home. I thank my boys for supporting me because I can be tough on them. I push them to their limits and I don't allow them to believe that life is easy. I teach them to take advantage of the opportunities that come their way with gratitude and determination. I often tell them that I may not always be around and I need to prepare them for life's journey ahead. I encourage you love your children and...
