Tatienne Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 256 pages. A powerful story of hope and courage! This book bears witness to the truth that even in the midst of darkness we can be filled with light. Mary Ann candidly and generously shares the details of a difficult life lived in the consciousness of the Holy Presence and in so doing uplifts and inspire us all. Marilyn Becker Senior Screenwriting Professor, School of Film and Television Loyola Marymount Univ. Los Angeles, CA This wonderful book will make the very depths of your soul cry, while also giving you hope showing you that there truly is light at the end of the tunnel of despair and pain. It is impossible to read Mary Ann Johnstons autobiography without being transformed, without seeing your life as a path with purpose. The author is a deeply spiritual person, who bravely lived through very tough times. This book is different from other stories of people finding solace in religious convictions, as Mary Anns faith does not come only from her Christian upbringing and beliefs. It also arises from and is continuously strengthened by blissful spiritual experiences and loving communion with Jesus and divine beings in both Christian and Hindu traditions. Through her faith that God is always with her, helping her, the author is able to deal with difficulties in a constructive way and thus grow in soul stature. Along the way, she finds her calling: to use her life experiences and faith to help others. This book is yet another milestone in fulfilling Mary Anns life purpose of helping others. Susan Stoica, PhD. Author of Reluctant Healer Sustained by Faith is about facing challenges at every step along lifes way: abuse, death, transformation, discovery, miracles, purifying and strengthening heart and soul, learning to see clearly and deeply, listening to intuition, and taking...
