Such a vessel, I suppose, never sailed in these seas before, and never before was such a voyage performed so expeditiously. The distance is more than 800 miles, which we ran in four days and three hours, including all stops and detentions. The capital of Porto Rico is a large town and handsome, built at right angles, and beautifully paved: the inhabitants and garrison about In walking through its streets in the evening I experienced the same stifling sensation in the atmosphere which we had felt before in Barbadoes and Tortola: it seemed as if exertion would kill me: I walked slowly and languidly, and was almost afraid to walk at all. The West Indies are now very sickly. In Barbadoes the troops are encamped, for the sake of health: we left three army-surgeons there who came out in the same packet. We had one case of yellow fever on board the steamer, and two others of beginning sickness. Port-royal has lost within the year two surgeons and twelve assistant-surgeons, and a great many soldiers and sailors; and the town of Kingston, where we now are, is very unhealthy. Samuel Oughton, one of the Baptist missionaries, tells me he has buried thirty persons of his congregation (a very large one, amounting to at least besides many children within the last six weeks.
