But we do object to having a small body of men force their ideas of the ludicrous upon the entire student body. These demonstrations are more representative of high schools or backwoods colleges, where hazing and the placing of cows in college buildings are still in vogue, than of a modern university. Such exhibitions have no place in the life at Ohio State. Initiate to your heart's content and have all sorts of acts staged, but do not impose them on the rest of the world. Keep them within the four walls of the chapter house. FEATEBNITY PIN SAVES STUDENT A. L. Hillyer still is wondering whether it was the fraternity pin, or what. Anyway, Hillyer, who is...
