By Th Kitt

Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 510 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 1.0in. Excerpt from Text Book of Comparative General Pathology for Practitioners and Students of Veterinary Medicine: The introduction of students of veterinary medicine to the study of pathology, because of the lack up to the present time of a German text book of general pathology adapted to diseases of animals, has depended chiefly upon works written for the practitioner of human medicine; the lectures of instructors in veterinary medicine and students notes, made with more or less accuracy, supplying the necessary additions and explanations. Only one work, the Text Book of General Pathological Anatomy by Birch-Hirschfeld, has been amended from the standpoint of our special branch of medicine, by the addition of veterinary-medical paragraphs from the facile pen of John, so as to seem adapted for students in veterinary schools; but it is confined to pathological anatomy, and the physiological and biological features, the manifestation of functional impairments, pathogenesis, etc. . require further reference to special works. As an introduction and foundation for appreciation of the practice of veterinary medicine, to be studied and put into application in the latter portions of the college...
