On Judah's vernal mountains The light of glory shone, And tinged the limpid fountains, When Gabriel came down;--The shepherds shook with terror When the bright form appeared, But soon perceived their error When the behest they heard. Dismiss your consternation --(They heard the angel say,) u Glad tidings of salvation I bring to you this day, -- For lo T in David's city On this auspicious morn, The Saviour comes with pity To save a race forlorn. The Word assumes your nature, And comes with man to dwell, --To save the fallen creature From sinking into hell: --The news of this salvation Shall spread the world around, Till...
