Who is the human Who is the alien Rose had enough trouble with trying to write her new novel. The last thing she needed was a love affair that would take her breath away and turn her world upside down. But he entered her life and she had no idea what to do about it. After she invites him to her house for a week, she starts to suspect that he is more than what he seems, which is just a recipe for disaster. Authors note This is one version of the character Rose and the strange things that surround her. But it may not be the real version of her life. There are more dangerous and mysterious things yet to come. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
