

Wonderland Cafe Somewhere in NY (Paperback)

By Sue Messruther

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Sarah is on a journey to discover the truth behind her brother's disappearance and her mother's absence. Once she had a family, as damaged as it was. Once she had a past and a future that was sad, but predictable, and easily understood. All that had changed, and instead of idly making coffee and reading through her collection of books, Sarah was facing the truth about the universe, and learning all of its secrets. The more she finds out, the less sanity she feels she possesses, and others around her are quick to point this out. She can only hope that all that she is experiencing is not the same mental disease that had once stolen her mother from her. It all began with the purchase of her cafe, Wonderland, but in truth it began long before. When as a little girl she would stare into her mother's empty eyes, and hope for a spark of recognition. In many ways she had never stopped hoping. As Sarah struggles to navigate the lies and deceptions of those she had thought...
