Many Shades of Gray: A Story of Love, Pain, War the Enduring Human Spirit

By Carl Turco

Bookstand Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 552 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 1.0in. The 1960s-1970s were turbulent times. Brooklyn, New York, and Vietnam were the backdrop of Marcos journey through love, war, Mafia, and street gangs. He and his friends got strong and fought back. Marco and Francesca were madly in love. But her Mafia family interfered with the fulfillment of their tormented relationship. Marco found solace in music. Marco and his friends saw hell in Vietnam. Some died. Felix Lopez fell in love with Thien Lan. The pullout of America from Vietnam devastated their lives. Felix fought many odds to be reunited with Lan. The Mafias secrecy ended with a flashy, new Godfather. Author Carl Turco has written a handful of books. This novel is his second published work. His first published book, Enterprise Architecture and Metadata Modeling, is an Information Technology treatise on how to best design Enterprise Data Models and Enterprise Data Bases. But Carl is more moved by Many Shades of Gray, because in his view, a description of innovative Technology does not compare in creativity to a reflection of the human heart, as related to the intense love and pain a human being can feel....
