DENIALISM AND HUMAN RIGHTS (PAPERBACK)

Intersentia Ltd, United Kingdom, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book The safeguarding of human rights remains highly problematic, despite the proliferation of human rights instruments and the many actions taken by a variety of actors, such as governmental and non-governmental organisations, (individual) states and the international community over the past decades. Human rights violations do still occur on a large scale and injustice remains rampant. Central to this problem appears to be that social, economic, cultural..
