Mother Made Me [Black White Version]: My Survival from Child Abuse and Multiple Personality Disorder (Paperback)

By Sissy Gabriella Lavern

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Mothers are supposed to be loving, nurturing, and protective, right? At least that's what little Sissy believed. Yet this innocent child was subjected to unimaginable abuses and tortures at the hands of her own mother. Her father left when she was just two, leaving her and her siblings vulnerable to a mother who was fighting her own demons. Her family then moved in with her mother's uncle where she shared a single bedroom with her sisters and mother until she was 18 years old. The abuse that she suffered during those years would be too much for any child to bear. She spent years struggling through confusion, terror, fear, the constant shattering of hopes, while trying desperately to find ways to rectify the incomprehensible fact that her own mother was a monster. As a form of self-protection, her psyche split into many personalities just to survive the constant and terrifying torments. Her little body and mind used these personalities to escape reality, a reality where memories got buried and time gaps were some of the unconscious coping mechanisms to deal with...
