

Cleveland County Agriculture (Images of America)

By Cleveland Soil And Water Conservation District

Arcadia Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 128 pages. Dimensions: 9.2in. x 6.5in. x 0.3in. Nestled in the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains in southwestern North Carolina, Cleveland County has long been cultivated. Before the Civil War, self-reliant farms grew and raised a diverse array of vegetables, field crops, and livestock. These small farms relied on family labor, draft animals, waterwheels, and ingenuity. Eventually, the county became a leader in production of cotton and dairy products; tractors, combines, and hay balers became farm mainstays. Cleveland County Agriculture showcases the triumphs and trials of farmers who endured the Great Depression, the arrival of the boll weevil, and the everyday challenges of farm life. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
