Gen Next Publication/Gyan Books Pvt. Ltd., New Delhi, India, 2015. Softcover. Book Condition: New. First Edition. After attending an international conference on health well-being and environment in Montreal, Canada, Inder dreams of working with you materialised. His paper, 'Orphan nephron's observation: Red kidneys are Blue to Green the environment', relating the role of ragpicker in the society to that of kidneys in human body, brings him in vicinity of an international environmentalist who manages for him to be part of the conference. However, he finds the same old ground realities ready to welcome him as soon as the aircraft hits the runway at Delhi airport. Death of his mentor, Ranchit, in a road accident makes him seeing organ donation as noble attempt in renewing human lives. He expects an integration of undeclared environmentalists or ragpickers, toiling millions who experience isolation at every step and living in seclusion, into the teeming millions of India. Being human, he strives and struggles to be recognised and/or accepted as a human being. About the author:- A close watch and keen observations enabled R K Raj to write this novel, now, in your hands. He drew his inspirations to pen down this story when he witnessed a ragpicker searching food in the garbage of a colony around midnight. This inspiration is embodied in 'Being Responsible' as a commitment to bring improvement in ragpickers' lives by presenting them with choices of education and skill development as 30 per cent of the royalty from this book is dedicated to create funds for the same. An engineer and strategist by academic training, R K Raj is a certified PMP from PMI and a senior member of IEEE. Hailing from Agra, he is an amateur at Delhi and Mumbai marathons regularly, and presently lives in Vasundhara, Ghaziabad. To...
