What does he say? Not much, in truth, that I can understand; But now and then, among the pretty sounds That he is making, falls upon my ear My name. And then the sand-man softly comes Upon him and he sleeps. And what am I, Here in my book, but as a little child Trying to cheer the big and silent dark With foolish words? But listen, O, my God, My Father, and among them thou shalt hear Thy name. And soon I too shall sleep. When I awake I shall be still with thee.
