Thistle Publishing, United Kingdom, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Reviews for Under a Croatian Sun: It's escapism that really works. Full of acute observation, uncontrollable humour and a rousing climax. - Country Life To his credit Stancomb resists the stereotype of the closed-minded British expatriate. - Independent on Sunday - Pick of the paperbacks A thoroughly good read ---An endearing tale of a roller coaster ride. - Croatia Online This is not a tale of your usual English couple. This is such a fantastic read . both humorous and thought provoking. - Travellingbookjunkie The author presents this quirky little tale in an honest way, even when he is on the receiving end of a joke. You don't need to make a break with your past to enjoy this book. It is a fascinating, humorous and totally believable read. - Robin's Reviews A good read. I enjoyed best the humorous bits. Tony Rossiter (author of It's Only a Bloody Game) A good read. - Tariq Ali Notes From a Very Small Island is the follow-up to the bestselling Under a Croatian Sun , which tells the story of a couple upping sticks and leaving their humdrum life in London for blue skies and cafe life on an island in Croatia. In this second book, the couple continue their attempts to fit in with the village community, but it's not always easy, and more often than not their endeavours involve them in in hilarious disasters. They also now try to start some projects up, but they have to battle with maddening ex-communist authorities and highly suspicious locals. However, through this, they get to see the crippling legacies that communism and the recent war have left in the lives...
