Susan Van Schreven, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Little children in the hospitals lay in cots looking out between bars, doing hard time as days passed without a nappy change, a hug, or any sort of encouragement to learn the basics of walking and talking. The babies would turn up at the hospital perfectly healthy and slowly, but surely, become disabled, both mentally and physically. Sue's empathy with the children's plight was real and palpable and what was so impressive was that she extended that empathy toward the parents who had abandoned their children. - Jan Bowron, Journalist My hope is that this book will help you to count the cost of your dream, be bold, and launch out into the deep. - Sue van Schreven Wow. your incredible energy, commitment and vision have really paid off - proof that one person can make a world of difference! Thank you for your consistent determination to overcome so much for the benefit of so many - your legacy will forever impact the lives of the children and their families. - Jill Donnachie, Vodafone NZ Foundation TEARS AND TRIUMPHS: Follow Sue van Schreven's inspiring and fast-moving story. This New Zealander is sure to capture your heart as she sets out to rescue some of the world's abandoned and forgotten. Sue's personal journey and how she established the valuable charitable work of Orphans Aid International is a must-read. Sue is an experienced and dynamic speaker who has been involved in charitable and volunteer work for almost twenty-five years. Visit for regular news.
