The Roman Pharos, as well as the remains of a very ancient church, are seen here on the highest part of the Castle Hill: the walls of this church, partly constructed with Roman tiles, are dilapidated, and the roof is entirely destroyed. Southward of the church is the present burial-ground of the garrison. Near the edge of the cliff is a piece of brass ordnance, usually called Queen Elizabeth s Pocket Pistol. It is twenty-four feet long, and carries a twelve-pound shot, but is now unfit for use. This cannon was cast at Utrecht in 1514: upon it are several devices, and some old Dutch lines, which have been thus translated: -- O er hill and dale, I throw my ball; Breaker, my name, of mound and wall. Dover, in the bathing season, has become a very favourite summer residence, which has led...

Reviews

The publication is great and fantastic. I actually have read through and i am sure that i am going to planning to go through yet again yet again down the road. I realized this pdf from my dad and i encouraged this publication to understand.

This book may be worth purchasing. It typically fails to expense excessive. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
