Catechism Manual (Paperback)

By L E Latorre Ph D

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Catechesis and Catechisms The catechism is a clear, concise exposition of the basic essentials of our Catholic Faith. By a living tradition, carried from centuries past to the present, the catechism is taught first to children by their parents within the heart of the family and later by teachers in schools. Since it is the deposit of the essentials of our Faith, the very bedrock of our principles and convictions, we continue to learn the catechism throughout our lives as sincere and maturing Catholics, who want to know and live what is required of us as children of God, heirs of heaven and followers of Jesus Christ. Learning the catechism - that is, learning the Faith in order to live it - is called catechesis. As such, catechesis is truly the effort of a lifetime, an effort that happily begins and is sustained with God's help, an effort that asks of us only the sincerity of our Faith and the courage of our cooperation. Catechesis for our time - as for all time - gives full and rightful place...
