Small Beer Press, United States, 2002. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. What if the world ended on your birthday-and no one came? What if your grandmother was a superhero? Recommended to readers of Judy Budnitz, Geoff Ryman, Aimee Bender, and Grace Paley this fourth collection by the wonderful Carol Emshwiller includes the Nebula winning story Creature. These short stories have a mysterious glow. -JANE Carol Emshwiller s stories are wonder-filled, necessary, and beautifully crafted. -Samuel R. Delany I read one of the stories in Carol Emshwiller s new collection, Report to the Men s Club, in progress several years ago and have thought about it ever since. I could even quote you lines! And now, having read the rest of the elegant, complex, insightful stories, I know she s done the same thing to me again eighteen times over! Emshwiller knows more about men and mortality and love and loss and writing and life than anybody on the planet! Dazzling, dangerous, devastating writer! Unforgettable (and I mean that literally!) collection! Wow! Wow! Wow! -Connie Willis Carol Emshwiller (Carmen Dog, etc.) lends her elegant wit to Report to the Men s Club, a collection of 19 fantastic short fictions treating the war between the sexes. Such tales as Grandma, Foster Mother and Prejudice and Pride are brim-full of wry insights into male-female relationships. Testimonials from Samuel R. Delaney, Maureen McHugh, Terry Bisson and Connie Willis, among other big names, should send this one into extra printings. -Publishers Weekly A daring, eccentric, and welcome observer of darkly human ways emerges from these 19 motley tales. Often writing in an ironical first-person voice, storyteller and novelist Emshwiller (Leaping Man Hill, 1999, etc.) assumes the persona of the outsider or renegade who flees the community as if to test boundaries...
