Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Stephen M. White, Californian, Citizen, Lawyer, Senator, Vol. 1 of 2: His Life and His Work The Senate having under consideration the bill (H. R. 75420) making appropriations for the naval service for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1897, and for other purposes - Mr. White said: Mr. President: I desire to make a few suggestions in reference to the further construction of a Navy and as to the desirability of coast defenses. I concede the necessity for an adequate Navy ample to protect us in case of exigency, but when we are considering the question of appropriating money for naval purposes we ought not to forget the situation of the country with regard to the matter of coast defenses. Our Defenses Condition While it is universally admitted that the United States is not in a position for successful defense against any leading nation, I do not believe that the public appreciate the utter ineffectiveness of the means heretofore taken to guard our coasts and our property. The situation can hardly be exaggerated. In the...
