By Pamela Hegarty

Sky Castle Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 374 pages. Dimensions: 8.8in. x 6.1in. x 1.2in. 5-star Reviews: I found myself staying up way past my normal bedtime. Murder, kidnapping, dark tunnels and scary skinwalkers keeps the story moving at a fast clip. Thinking persons thriller Read it! INTERNATIONAL BEST SELLER ASKS READERS, WHAT DO YOU BELIEVE Pamela Hegarty's new thriller is action-packed with a mysterious shaman, a brutal murder, bloodthirsty pirates, vicious beasts, a ruthless villain, a gunfight at an archeological site, a brilliant and beautiful heroine and a ruggedly handsome hero. No spoilers here, only the highlights from the opening scenes. At the action's core is a lost Biblical artifact, the Breastplate of Aaron, and the deadly chase to find seven legendary gemstones stolen from it. According to Exodus, God commanded man to create the Breastplate so they could hear His word directly, an answer to humankind's most compelling question. The Seventh Stone is provocative and suspenseful, and may spark controversy as it challenges the line between reality and faith. Note from the author: In The Seventh Stone, I tried to create the type of book I love to read, an action-packed quest not only for a powerful artifact, but...
