Reviews

It is a single of the best pdf. Better than ever, though I am quite late in starting to read this one. I realized this ebook from my dad and I encouraged this publication to understand.

Blacksmith Books. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Apologies Forthcoming: Stories Not About Mao, Xujun Eberlein, This title is the winner of the third annual Tarrt Fiction Award. It was some decade. The universities were closed. Students were at war. Poetry was banned. And the word "love", unless applied to Mao, was expressly forbidden. Artists were denounced, and many opted for suicide. This is the time - its madness, its passion, its complexity - that Xujun Eberlein brings vividly to life in "Apologies Forthcoming", her moving collection of short stories about the millions who lived during China's Cultural Revolution. An award-winning writer who now lives in Massachusetts, Eberlein has nothing to apologise for. Her stories are electrifying. About half of the stories take place during the years of the Cultural Revolution; the other half in its aftermath. How many come from personal experience is hard to say. Eberlein, who lived through the Cultural Revolution's decade as a child and teenager, had a sister who died as a Red Guard, and that event seems fictionalised in one of the stories. "Apologies Forthcoming" shines a revealing light on some of the people whose lives were changed forever by the ten years that turned China upside down. Eberlein does the great service of illuminating the interior lives of a peculiar generation, many of whom are now leading China's phenomenal awakening.
