The Ten Kingdoms of Eros have been fighting a religious war on two fronts for longer than anyone can remember. Across the Barren Sea, the people of Atmos follow the Moon Prophet, and they have brought the war to the Kingdom of Sakton, the easternmost kingdom. Fighting wars on two continents, the Lords of the Citadel and the religious leaders are unaware of what is brewing within Eros. The lords of the Ten Kingdoms, intent on regaining the power they lost during the dawn of the Second Age, have begun to plot the overthrow of those in power in the Citadel, religious or otherwise. The plot is discovered, and across the Ten Kingdoms, people journey to the Citadel with the hope of revealing the plans before it is too late.
