North Star Press of St. Cloud. Paperback. Condition: New. 224 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.1in. x 0.6in. Candace Klein is one of the lucky ones in her professional life, finding genuine meaning in her work as a law professor. But her personal life is troubled by a growing distance from her husband, Bill, who languishes in a dead-end job working for her father. Suffering the horrific loss of her child in a car bombing, Candace grieves and seeks solace in her faith. Then a politically climbing prosecutor, Robby Sherburne, takes control of the criminal investigation and promises the death penalty for a child-killer. Meanwhile, Ed Burton, a suburban cop, simply tries to follow the evidence where it leads. When her husband becomes the target of the investigation, Candace asserts her marital privilege and refuses to cooperate. This ultimately provokes a crisis of identity between her professional commitment to the justice system and her resolute loyalty to her husband. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
