Excerpt from Annual Report of the Canada Education and Home Missionary Society: Read at the General Meeting, October 23, 1833 To supply that want was the object of this Society, not in opposition to other Societies, but to co-operate with them in evangelizing the country. The Committee endeavoured immediately to procure faithful Ministers as Missionaries. In these efforts they met with the most disheartening obstacles. There were no theological seminaries in this country, from which they might procure young men trained up for the ministry, and of course they were compelled to send to other countries. But although urgent letters were written to various influential individuals in England and Scotland, more than a year elapsed before even a single Missionary could be procured.
