Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .(An Epic Poem of 6 books, 740 pages, and 33,616 words) Toishan: A Ballad of the Gum Shan Men and Women Who Built The American Railroads. Spanning more than 1,300 years and over forty-seven generations, Toishan bookmarks at key points in time the contributions of the Chinese men and women who built the American railroads. In six spellbinding works, Cashwell chronicles the return of the Chinese to California, and the arrival of the Irish, in an imaginative but highly believable alternate history of the discovery and ultimate assimilation of the American West. In BOOK FIVE, Come to Gum Shan (Gold Mountain) becomes the call for thousands. And they did only to die by the hundreds after they were dumped ashore. The adventures of Zhau My-Lee and his daughter Electra continue at a breathtaking pace as Zhau becomes Headman of the Central Pacific Railroad Line and his daughter becomes head lady of O Ryan Gnarr Roberts. More than thirteen centuries later, on the day of Our Lord recorded the 10th day of May 1869, a single word was telegraphed but once from Promontory...
