LIBERTY S CHRISTMAS (HARDBACK)

Texas Tech Press,U.S., United States, 2012. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Like most everybody else in the middle of the Great Depression, sixteen-year-old Liberty Justice Jones is, well, stuck. But living smack-dab in the Lost Pines of Texas, where anyone can walk into the forest and chop a tree for free, with a debt-burdened mom who s trying to make a go of a newfangled idea called a Christmas tree farm? That s stuck bad. Especially if your dream is college. Liberty s younger brother, Jefferson, is no help, and neither is their addled grandmother. Liberty s only hope is her own wits. But if she s so smart, she wonders, why can t she figure out a way to help their family and get off this wreck of a farm? Learning of the five-hundred-dollar prize for the most beautiful Christmas tree delivered to the state capitol in Austin, Liberty hatches a plot. With the aid of their aging draft horse, Quiller; their derelict tractor, Stella; and Rudy, a kid pulled between America and Mexico and fresh off the rails, she s determined to take home the honours. With the sparkling dialogue and spunky humour that fans have come to love in her heroines, and a perceptive eye and ear for historical detail, award-winning author Randall Platt takes readers young and old on a spirited adventure set in a time when dreams were all many folks had.
