Ill translation and commentary A. the jewish period--chapters I-vii From The Ascension Of Christ Until Stephen s Martyrdom. A. D. 30 To A. D. 33 chapter I introduction and preparation commentary Paragraph i. Luke s Preface. Verses 1-5. The author, whom we account with most to have been Luke, the writer of the Third Gospel, relates the present work to that which had preceded it both by referring to the former as first and by describing it as giving a narrative of all the things which Jesus began to do and teach until the day of His Ascension. The book now submitted to Theophilus repeats for introduction the last scene of the former work, that of the Ascension, and thus gives double emphasis and prominence to this great event. He makes the total period of forty days from the resurrection forward but one...
