LIGHT ALONG THE NARROW PATH (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Have you ever wondered if life has a purpose? Have you ever wondered what you were supposed to do in this life? Have you ever wondered if God is real, and if so, does He matter? As a young adult, I certainly did. Life decisions like these can often weigh heavily on a young person's mind, and I was no exception. I struggled to find answers to these questions and to figure out which paths in life would lead to happiness, joy, and/or fulfillment, and which ones would lead potentially to loneliness, heartache or even ruin. But light to illuminate the path can be found if you know how to recognize it and where to look for it. Sometimes it comes from where you least expect it. It can come in ways that are truly surprising. In Light Along the Narrow Path, I share reflections on some of the experiences that illuminated my path. I now call those flashes of insight by what I believe to be their proper name: grace. I hope that by sharing these experiences, they might help you reflect on your story, and more easily recognize the light that has shined upon you and graced your path. It is also my hope that as we recognize and share these kinds of moments in our lives with each other, that it might help to give more light along the way for us all, as we travel along the narrow path.
