Excerpt from The Latter-Day Saints Millennial Star, Vol. 80: February 14, 1918 For the benefit of the fund to help build the Canadian and Hawaiian Temples, in process of construction the Society, during the past year, gathered, through the so-called Penny-fund, more than $12 000 as a voluntary donation without noise or public collections. In addition to the monthly calls upon the saints in their homes, the officers of the Society have made, during the year, more than special visits to the sick. The burial-clothing department, recently established, is in every way successful. So is the garden ing and home improvement feature of the practical instruction, commenced four years before the national movement was instituted. The Relief Society Magazine, now in its fourth volume, is a powerful help to the progress of the Society, and is self-sustaining financially and otherwise.
