Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . T3 - THE TIME TUNNEL Henry the Eighth was born in 1491. Originally groomed for a life in the church, all that changed when in 1502 his brother Arthur died. When in 1509 Henry the Seventh died, on the 24th of June 1509 his son was crowned Henry the Eighth of England. That s when the fun and games began! Meanwhile, back in the here and now, Doctor James Grant and Doctor Andy Timpson, both based in Beverley, East Yorkshire, decide to go on holiday, travelling back in time, using the latest facilities offered by Hull based time travel firm Locators to visit King Henry at Hampton Court Palace, where they intend to gain an audience with the King and then offer to treat his ailments, using modern medication and methods. As a reward, the two Doctor s will attempt to wangle something beneficial for themselves out of the King, known to be a generous benefactor. They plan to travel back in time to December 1546, cop for what they can, stash it away somewhere safe, ready to be recovered once the two return to modern times. They know that it is strictly against time-travel law for them to interfere with events, but decide to ignore that. Once back in 1546, they try to arrange an audience with King Henry at Hampton Court Palace - and things develop from there. WATERHOUSE LANE Three fictional stories of three Ladies of the Night, from three different eras, who lived and worked in Hull, which examines how cruel fate forced them into earning a living as prostitutes and how the authorities responded to their plight: Miss Polly Stansfield - 1897 Frau Renate Lappe -...
