Puffin Books, United States, 1998. Paperback. Condition: New. Reprint. Language: English . Brand New Book. A heartbreaking story about learning to cope with loss from the Caldecott Honor winning author of WAITING When a person is gone, you need something to remember her by. It's been only two months since Spoon Gilmore's grandmother died, but already he's worried that he'll forget her. He needs something of Grandma's, something that matters, something special. But Spoon's little sister, Joanie, won't stop tagging along and pestering him, even when they go to their grandfather's house. And that's why Spoon winds up doing what he does . . . Exceptionally moving . . . Readers will savor the understated narrative and its powerful message of affirmation. --Publishers Weekly.
