THE CONTINUOUS TURN: AN ANTHOLOGY OF LOVE AND THE SUPERNATURAL (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . From the elated light of love to the forbidding darkness of death these six, time progressive stories relate to the horrors of romantic involvement. Beginning in 1854, a London writer finds the prospects of love in a voice that emanates from a dark corner of his flat. The second story is set in 1876 and involves the insoluble relationship between a wealthy English army officer and a young woman of common status. The American Civil War is the backdrop for the third story, which tells of a young soldier who finds his one true love in the substance of his dreams. The forth story moves forward to Montana, 1910, and relates to the a father and his two sons who buy a house that is haunted by the ghost of a lovelorn female who is still seeking for love. Manfred s Gallery, the fifth story regales the reader with the story of schizophrenic artist in Seattle, Washington after World War II, who paints the portraits of his delusions. Lastly The Atheist is a man who becomes tired of his wife s religious fervor and decides to murder her; he subsequently falls to the horrors of providential justice.
