Excerpt: . . . THE SOCIAL ELEMENT IN THE WORK OF THE YOUNG MENS CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS For the past two years the secretaries and the physical directors of the Brooklyn Association have been engaged, under the leadership of Dr. Luther Gulick, in the study of the social instincts of young men, with special reference to the work of the Young Mens Christian Associations. This paper is an attempt to present the most salient result of those studies. No effort has been made to summarize the papers that have been presented, but rather to extract from them as a whole a central and fundamental principle which has been considered, and the most striking applications of it to Association work. This paper must be regarded as in a sense the composite work of the secretaries and physical directors of the Brooklyn Association under expert leadership, and not as the original...
