See how wretched the poor donkey looks, standing unsheltered out in the keen wind and cold rain, and think how he must suffer, after a hard day s work, in having to pass the long night in a cold, damp hovel, or out-house. He seems to have a great fear of getting his feet wet--fitted as they are for treading the dry hot plains of the south SHOULD BE HUMOURED. 87--and you may notice how the donkey will try to turn aside from every pool and puddle in the road, even if he has a heavy load on his back. Let us humour our patient, shaggy friend, and allow him to pick his own way in the sloppy lane; and in all his harmless likes and dislikes let us do as we would be done by to our fellow-labourer, the ass, as we know we ought to do to our fellow-creature, man. Question.--What kind of animal is the ass? Answer.--Thick-skinned, herbivorous, solid-footed. Q.--Where does the ass live in a wild state? A--In the hot districts of Central Asia. Q.--What therefore does the donkey most need? A.--To be warm, dry, and clean; to have plenty of fresh air, anil spring water, and wild plants of his own choosing. Q.--What does hard treatment make him? A.--Stupid and stubborn. Q.--What does fair treatment make him? A.--A useful, willing, and intelligent animal. ANIMALS WHO LIVE WITH US. THE DOG. Among all the animals there is...
