

Shakespeare - A Pair of Parodies

By George Enice Lawhon

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In the opinion of some scholars, Hamlet was really created by William Shakespeare as an autobiographical character, a person who could never make up his mind, liked to make pompous speeches to no one in particular, and was fond of sticking his sword through curtains in case anyone was trying to steal one of his plays that he never wrote anyway. HIP HAMLET There are also those who hold that Queen Gertrude was really Queen Elizabeth, which would have made her Shakespeare s mother, which would certainly revise the theory of the Virgin Queen. This is a stretch for most Englishmen, who are unwilling to go there. Enough of theory, the play is the thing, Bill says, and in Hamlet we have a story of a hip lad not understood by his generation, and who has worried successive generations since. Today s youth would certainly dig him, for he was hip, he was with it. He smoked high grade pot, wore the latest in mod fashion, and protested with vigor and class. It is not known if he...
