Inverse Books, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Politics, sex, corruption, blackmail, lies . . . and that s just the first three pages! As teenagers, Alison and Derek were lovers--but chose opposite directions which tore them apart. Now adults, the pursuit of their incompatible dreams turns them into enemies who must deny their love for each other. But the real-world consequences of their actions bring them together in an alliance of mutual self-preservation--and cause them both to question their every belief. TRUST YOUR ENEMIES IS A NOVEL OF IDEAS that s packed with action and adventure. It s a political thriller--but one like no other you ve ever read. Alison McGuire is the indispensable right-hand to Australia s next Prime Minister. She s one step away from achieving the goal of a lifetime . . . when she s suddenly ensnared in a web of power and intrigue by Frank McKurn, a devious, Machiavellian politician. In her frantic race for survival, Alison must deliver a knockout blow to demolish McKurn . . . before it s too late. But how? . . . To win, they must risk everything. In desperation, Alison turns for help to the key people in her life: An acerbic-tongued newspaper columnist--who ends up in a coma. A secretive computer hacker who discovers incriminating evidence--and then is forced into hiding. A police officer who s abruptly removed from a crucial investigation. A politician supposedly on her side--who shows his true, spineless colors at the worst possible moment. With her every resource exhausted, she faces a life-or-death question: Can she trust Derek Olsson--the man she once loved? The man she mistakenly thinks deceived and betrayed her, who she now regards as an enemy? Meanwhile, Olsson is nowhere...
