Its been an uncommon life, uncommonly blessed in spite of my uncommon unworthiness. As the psalmist says, I want the world to know what God has done for me (Psalms 66: 16), from an Illinois prairie farm through the Orient aflame and the Old World in a Cold War at the point of a supersonic spear; from the urban madness of Europe and America in corporate jets and limousines; from the delectable Blue Ridge Mountains of North Carolina to a mesa at the base of majestic Pikes Peak; and a seven-year fulltime RV Tour of Gods magnificent North American creation. Its been uncommonly wonderful. These are the highlights of Gods grace in my growing season, with vignettes of the angels who cultivated me along the way, from incorrigible country kid to serene senior citizen. They comprise a story of grace abounding to the worst of sinners, planned in the providence of a merciful God before time began This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
