Excerpt: . . . 5 Before I begin, Mr. Chairman, again, let me thank your staff, and also the members of our Capitol Police force for helping us get the tables out of here so we could accommodate more people. Ap-plause . As you can see, they did a great job. Thank you. As you can see when you came in, Mr. Chairman, we have an overflow group, and some of them are now going down to Room 106, I guess, which is the overflow room. I think it is going to take some time for them to get there, so they will probably miss a little bit of this. But I think you can gather from that that this is an issue of utmost importance, of the highest importance, to people with disabilities in our country. The question before this committee today is, really, how do we give older Americans and Americans with...

Reviews

Absolutely among the finest pdf I have got possibly read. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
