

Touchstones (Paperback)

By Ann Ahnemann

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The Touchstones short story collection from Ann Ahnemann features a potpourri of pleasing tales with endearing characters and fascinating situations: The Backside is about an aging jockey who takes a stand against the modern slaughtering of horses for meat. Cody Treat is a young Native American who, strangely enough, owns and operates a fishing boat in New England. It s the story of his contending with the sea and business competitors along with his new love interest, Annie, who s struggling with her own identity as she breaks from her family ties and starts a new life. Serving the Paper gives the account of child neglect and the troubles of the poor in a small town in Maine. It features two police figures who will make an appearance the next story. Wolf Man chronicles life after Vietnam for one soldier who didn t quite make the grade. Durwood Trey tells of a young girl s formative years and one of the last summers she will spend with her aunt in Genesee, PA where she ll begin the shedding of innocence with the...
