Not illustrated. 1878 Excerpt: .foot--Substantial is, or solid; but to that Solidity in me, which is to it Akin. If this in me shall pass, so too Shall all in that to my solidity, So solid-seeming now. Therefore, I m forced To name the. voip the passing, and its source The grand eternal, the only permanent! Oh! hence, along those rugged ledges, where Thy young thoughts stalk, thy fears, were I, as erst, To venture much, were not, I grant thee now Without a footing! Yes, it easier is To wander from yon moon, however faint Her guiding light--which still is light from heaven--Than to return and gaze upon her face, With that wild depth of love you speak of, when We ve drowned her rays with other light--which light, Howe er so broad, may still be earth s! This gem Of mine may have its spots unpolished here And there--its darker spots; but still it hath Enough of beauty to make manifest Its claim to be a gem without a price! And so, I ll wear it through the world with thee, My bride, to give it form and colour now And then, as we may deem it lack. But there Is work to do--strong chains to break--the mass To raise to human height--the bands to pull From eyes, self-blinded gainst their owner s rights, And thon, my love, hast many songs to learn, And melodies to teach; and though heside Our home, upon the hill of Voiceways, And neath...
