

I Almost Gave Up. (Paperback)

By P J Ingram McPhee

Outskirts Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . I Almost Gave Up, But Giving Up Is Not an Option Anymore! It was fascinating to think how my life appeared so well put together by so many other people, but deep down inside I knew the threads were coming apart at the seams. Several events and/or experiences of years past and present brought this notion to mind to share with family, friends, and readers the tremendous blessings of endurance. It is especially important to focus on the fact that you can be a Preacher's kid and grow up all your life in church and still find yourself in a dark place of no return. This book has been written primarily for the person who is hurting and the enemy has told them that there is no way out. It is critical for you to be aware that it is OK to feel out of touch at times, but also to know you don't have to face your fears alone. There were scriptures and stories used in this book for demonstration from the King James Version of the Bible....
