Excerpt: . . . the beginning of the year, was decided November 1, 1915 (44 D. C. Appeals, 73), in favor of the District. Overtime. --In performing their duties during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1916, the sanitary inspectors, exclusive of the supervising officer, worked 1, 247 hours overtime, equal to 178 working days. This work was done without hope of compensation. Recommendations. --I have the honor to renew my previous recommendations that provisions be made for the collection and disposal of manure in this District, such collection and disposal to be under the supervision of the District authorities; that some provision be made that will enable the health department to enforce in a substantial manner the act to cause the removal of weeds from lands in the city of Washington, D. C; and that the act for the prevention of smoke in the District, and for...
