

Collectivism and Charity: The Great Deception (Paperback)

By Dan Wolf

Dan Wolf an Imprint of Telemachus Press, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Two-thirds or more Americans today believe we are no longer on the right track. What has happened? How have we gotten here? We have lost our way; people understand this and are reacting to it. This is evidenced by Donald Trump's nomination and Britain's vote to exit the E.U. Do You Want To Be Free outlined both tracks' foundations. Specifically, two sets of principles that have existed for over two thousand years - individualism and collectivism. These are not only contradictory, but incompatible. The first relates to our purpose, the second does not. The first leads to our independence, the second to becoming dependent. Collectivism and Charity extends the initial analysis to the behavior we should see within a society on the right track, and how it differs from one on the wrong track. The key is charity. Self-sacrifice versus self-service. The first is rooted in virtue, the second in vice. No people give more to charity than Americans, but are we truly charitable today? I believe we once were, but the things that set us...
