Dear Young Friend: The Letters of American Presidents to Children (Paperback)

By Stanley Weintraub

Stackpole Books, United States, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Reprint. Language: English . Brand New Book. Just a few of the words of presidential wisdom found in Dear Young Friend: I rejoice that you have learnt to write, .for as this is done with a goosequill, you know the value of a goose. -Thomas Jefferson, to his granddaughter, Cornelia Randolph As to the whiskers, having never worn any, do you not think people would call it a bit of silly affection if were to begin now? -Abraham Lincoln to Grace Bedell If we are successful [in the election], it will not be handsome behavior for any of my family to exhibit exultation or talk boastingly, or be in vain about it. -Rutherford B. Hayes, to his son Ruddy The other sixty cents are for my other six grandchildren. They are not born yet. -Theodore Roosevelt, to Marjorie Sterrett, who was collecting dimes to fund a battleship The John Birchers are just Ku Klux without the nightshirts. - Harry Truman to David S. McCracken If you really believe, you will see them. My [Irish] little people are very small, wear tall black stovepipe hats, green coats and pants, and have long, white beards....
